The Family Funeral Service®

In August 1907, my great-grandfather, Arthur William Lymn, conducted his first funeral, founding A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service. From the very start, the business has been dedicated to quality service, value for money, and meeting the needs of clients, earning a respected reputation for expertise and dedication within the Nottinghamshire, South Derbyshire and since 2024, Leicestershire communities.

Originally furniture makers, Arthur and his son Harold, transitioned into specialising in coffins and funeral services. The business grew quickly, leading to a move to larger premises in 1915. By the time of Arthur's passing in 1929, Harold and his mother Louisa were managing the business through significant challenges, including wartime rationing. During World War II, Harold even volunteered in the Civil Defence mortuary.

The company expanded further under the guidance of Harold's son, Douglas and son-in-law, my father, George Rose, and became a limited company in 1958. In 1977, after Harold's death, the firm moved its headquarters to Robin Hood House, where it remains today. The family's involvement has been key to its success over the years. Today my wife Penny, my sister Jackie and I are all actively involved, while the fifth generation, led by my son Matthew as Managing Director and daughter Chlöe as Director, manage daily operations with my nephew Ben also being involved.

With 26 funeral homes, an in-house floristry division, and the largest privately-owned Rolls-Royce funeral fleet in the world, A.W. Lymn continues to thrive. We are proud members of the National Association of Funeral Directors and the European Group of Selected Independent Funeral Homes. The business remains committed to reinvesting in our staff, facilities, and services to ensure we provide the highest level of care to bereaved families.

I am immensely proud to carry on my great-grandfather's legacy, upholding the values he established. With our deep roots in the local area, our reputation is built on experience and strong connections to the communities we serve.

Client choice is central to our service. We offer guidance on local churches, ministers, and crematoria, along with unique, tailored services. While the business has grown and evolved, it remains proudly family-owned and is managed by the fifth generation and Pete Clarson, the first non family Director, supported by a skilled team.

I hope this brochure assists you in making informed decisions, and please know that adjustments can be made at any time. For further support, do not hesitate to contact your local funeral home.

Nigel Lymn Rose
Company Chairman and fourth generation

Our Board of Directors

First Steps

First Steps

The first step should always be contact with your local funeral director who will offer help and advice any time of the day or night. Our calls are all answered by our own local experienced funeral arrangers.

Financial Advice

Dealing with finances after a bereavement can be overwhelming, but some matters need prompt attention to avoid complications.

Funeral costs can often be paid directly from the deceased's bank account with the invoice and death certificate, provided there are sufficient funds. If not, State assistance may be available, please ask your funeral arranger for eligibility criteria.

It is advisable to write a list with the following information about the deceased:-

- Accounts/Shares/ISA's etc
- Life Insurance
- Private Pensions/Annuities
- DWP/State Pension
- Utility Companies
- Council Tax
- Buildings Insurance

All these people may have to be contacted and creating a list at the start will help organise what needs to be done.

The person responsible for managing the estate will be:

- The executor, if there's a Will
- The next of kin under the rules of intestacy, if there's no Will

They can handle matters personally or seek help from a solicitor, especially for complex estates. Some solicitors offer free consultations to determine if you need their services, and you can always seek their assistance later if needed.

Registration of Death

Your funeral director cannot register the death for you - this must be done by the legally responsible person, such as a relative, executor or someone arranging the funeral. Once the doctor issues the Medical Certificate of Cause of Death (MCCD) and it is approved by the Medical Examiner and sent to the Register Office, our staff can help you arrange an appointment with the registrar. Deaths should be registered within five days of the paperwork being received by the Register Office unless the Coroner is involved.

When registering, you'll need to provide the following information about the deceased:

- Date and place of death
- Full name and any previous names (e.g., maiden name)
- Date and place of birth
- Last address
- Occupation
- Details of a deceased or surviving spouse or civil partner, including full name, date of birth and occupation
- Information about state pension and other benefits

The registrar will verify the details and you will sign the register. You can also access the "Tell Us Once" service to notify multiple government departments (e.g., council tax, DVLA, benefits, pensions).

On completion, the Registrar will issue:

- A 'green form' for burial or cremation
- A BD8 form for pension or benefits, only if you are not using the "Tell Us Once" service
- Certified copies of entry (Death certificates) £12.50 each

Useful telephone numbers

- City of Nottingham Register Office: 0115 841 5554
- Nottinghamshire Register Office: 0300 500 8080

Funeral Costs

Funeral Costs

Each funeral arranged by A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service includes a written estimate prepared in advance by an experienced arranger. This estimate, along with our contract, must be signed by the client, who is responsible for the payment. During this process, we will discuss funeral funding. Unlike many other funeral directors, we typically do not require payment before the funeral, though some cemeteries may request pre-payment.

The final invoice will be sent approximately one week after the funeral. If the funeral is largely funded by a pre-paid plan, any outstanding items not covered by the plan provider will also be billed at this time.

Invoices to Third Parties

Invoices can be sent to third parties (e.g. a family member, bank or solicitor), but the client remains responsible for payment.

Other Help Available

Some clients may be eligible for DWP assistance with funeral costs. Our staff can advise and assist with claims, though DWP payments won't cover the full cost. They can also assist in obtaining further help available from the government or charities.

Discounts

A £100.00 discount is available if the full estimate is paid before the funeral date.

Items included at no charge **

Items marked ** are offered at no cost for full-price adult funerals or A.W. Lymn pre-paid plans.

Please see www.lymn.co.uk/terms-conditions/ for more details.

We offer a facility of loans to our clients subject to an affordability survey through a simple system and set loan amounts. The main points are:-

- No need for loan security
- No early repayment penalty
- Loans are available from £600.00 - £3,000.00.
- Interest is payable at rates ranging from 14.8% - 16.9% APR

The loan agreement is made at the discretion of the lender, who reserves the right to withdraw loan offers at any time prior to an agreement being signed by both parties. Additional interest and charges will apply if the loan is not repaid in line with the terms of the agreement. Any costs incurred by the lender, as a result of the borrower defaulting on the loan repayments, will also be added to the loan balance. ## Civil Celebrants

A civil funeral celebrant leads a funeral or celebration of life and introduces family or friends who wish to participate in the service. The content of the ceremony is decided by family and friends, with the support of the celebrant.

In addition to trusted independent celebrants, A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service employs three celebrants who hold the NOCN Level 3 Diploma in Funeral Celebrancy and the National Association of Funeral Directors' Diploma in Funeral Directing.

Choosing the right officiant

A.W. Lymn fee £300.00

A Religious Minister: A minister will deliver a full religious service, including prayers, hymns and scripture, and commit the soul to God's care. If you don't have a connection to a place of worship, we can help find a minister for you. Each religion offers specific funeral options, and it's best to ask for details before deciding.

An Independent or Civil Celebrant: Civil funerals focus on the wishes of the deceased and family, not the beliefs of the celebrant. They can include religious elements like hymns or prayers but don't have to be fully religious. Celebrants are usually trained by a professional body such as the IOCF or AIC.

A Humanist Celebrant: Humanists don't believe in an afterlife or spiritual beings, so their ceremonies are non-religious. They focus on celebrating the deceased's life and achievements. Humanist celebrants are trained by Humanists UK.

All funeral ceremonies should be personal and relevant to the individual who has died. Please be aware that different types of service or ceremony may offer greater or lesser opportunities for input regarding the choice of music, poetry, personal reminiscences, life story etc. It is always wise to check with the officiant that they are willing to provide exactly the type of ceremony that is appropriate for the person who has died. If you have any questions the please email celebrants@lymn.co.uk or speak to your funeral arranger for advice.

Online Obituaries & Donations

We create an online obituary for every funeral at www.lymn.co.uk/obituaries unless instructed otherwise. We enter the basic details and then email a family member with instructions on adding more information. Please check your junk email folder for this message.

Obituary

The online obituary features a full-page picture and biography, along with practical details like the funeral service's time and location.

Memorial Book

The online memorial book allows you to store memories, including pictures and stories about the deceased. It's interactive, enabling friends and family to leave messages, light candles, and share photos. As the owner, our client has complete control over the displayed messages.

The screenshot displays the A.W. Lymn website interface for an obituary. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the 'Funeral Guide' logo, 'Compare Funeral Directors', 'Help & Advice', and a menu icon. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column features a circular profile picture of Nino Ciaurro, his name, dates (10 Oct 1959 - 11 Jan 2023), and buttons for 'Photo Gallery', 'Share obituary', and 'Contact Obituary Owner'. Below this is a 'Download Order of Service' button. A detailed obituary text follows, describing Nino's passing and funeral arrangements. At the bottom of this column are three buttons: 'Write a Message', 'Add a Photo', and 'Light a Candle'. The right column contains a 'Donate in memory of Nino' section for Brain Research UK, showing a donation of £9,915.60 and a 'Donate Now' button. Below this is the 'Funeral Director' section for A.W. Lymn Nottingham, including the funeral service location (Cathedral Church of St. Barnabas), date (9th Feb 2023), and time (10am). The 'Cremation Details' section follows, listing the location (Gedling Crematorium) and date (9th Feb 2023). The bottom of the page shows two messages from Emily Rooke and Lynne HART, each with a 'Report abuse' button and a 'Comment on this message' button. The 'Funeral Guide' logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the interface.

Donations

Our online obituary allows family and friends to donate easily via www.lymn.co.uk/obituaries, with the option to Gift Aid through our partnership with Just Giving. The family announcement in the newspaper should state: "Family flowers only, please," or "No flowers, but donations for [chosen charity] may be sent to A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service or submitted online."

If a retiring collection is taken at a church or cemetery, permission from the Minister or Authority is required. Donations are recorded individually if a name and address are provided.

All donations are securely banked in a "Client Donations Account" at Barclays Bank, operated free of charge without interest. Online donations can be increased under Gift Aid rules, and posted donations can be handled similarly with the relevant declaration.

Approximately one month after the funeral, a cheque for the total amount is sent to the charity, along with details of the family and deceased, and a list of individual donors (excluding amounts). Families receive a list of donor names and addresses and the total amount forwarded, but not individual donation amounts.

For queries, contact our donations manager Monday to Friday, 9:00am - 5:00pm at 0115 941 4101 Ext. *432 or donations@lymn.co.uk.

How Community Foundations Help

There are 46 community foundations across the UK, each with expertise in local charities addressing regional social issues. They manage charitable funds effectively, working alongside solicitors and financial advisors to provide philanthropy advice.

The Practicalities

Legacies to community foundations qualify as charitable donations, making them exempt from inheritance tax, potentially reducing estate tax and maximising available assets for heirs. Community foundations handle various types of legacies, including cash, property and stocks.

Coffin & Casket Range

Selecting a meaningful coffin or casket can be an important step in the bereavement process, helping to honour the memory of your loved one. In partnership with our specialist supplier, J.C.

Atkinson- an award-winning UK manufacturer, we offer a range of high-quality, environmentally friendly coffins and caskets. Renowned for their commitment to sustainability, craftsmanship, and service, they lead in green options, from traditional wood coffins to picture coffins and softer materials like wool, wicker, and bamboo.

J.C. Atkinson believes a coffin should reflect individual tastes and styles, allowing you to choose something as unique as the person it represents. Their diverse collection includes everything from classic wood styles to coffins adorned with personalised imagery, as well as eco-friendly options for those passionate about sustainability.

When choosing, consider elements that might capture the spirit of your loved one - a love of nature, dedication to a hobby or perhaps loyalty to a favourite sports team or a fondness for tradition. Each option offers unique features, and our Nottingham showroom is open by appointment for you to view the full selection in person.

For clients supplying their own coffin

The Craftsmen in Stone®

In 1937, Harold Lymn expanded the services offered to bereaved families by founding Ernest Smith The Craftsmen in Stone, now known as A.W. Lymn The Craftsmen in Stone. The business provides high-quality memorial stones across the East Midlands and beyond.

We aim to help you choose a fitting tribute, whether it's a traditional honed memorial or a modern polished stone. All memorials are fully priced and include a number of sandblasted letters, fitting in a local burial ground (within 50 miles of our workshop), flower containers with fresh seasonal flowers, and VAT. We also offer bespoke memorial designs.

For discussions about new memorials, renovations, or inscriptions, please contact Sarah Fisher, Mary Haynes, or Maureen Kite using the details below or reach out through your local A.W. Lymn funeral director. Alternatively, we can arrange a no-obligation visit to your home.

Support Services after the Funeral

The Bereavement Register

The Bereavement Register

The Bereavement Register helps stop unsolicited mail addressed to someone who has passed away. By registering, direct mail to the deceased will significantly decrease within four to six weeks and usually stop entirely within six months.

If unwanted mail persists, you can forward items to their Freepost address, and they will handle it on your behalf.

At A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service, we automatically register clients with The Bereavement Register unless otherwise requested.

Nottinghamshire Police Force Scam Warning

Fraud advice for the recently bereaved.

Nottinghamshire Police are keen to stop funeral fraudsters scamming bereaved families in the East Midlands. Scammers are convincing liars who will stop at nothing to make sure their scams seem plausible and unfortunately, research has shown that recently bereaved people are more susceptible. Never respond to phone calls, e-mails or letters which may come out of the blue without talking to friends or relatives first. You can also call or drop into any of our funeral homes to ask for advice.

Please be alert for:-

- Out of the blue contact
- Requests that cause high emotion
- Anything that needs urgent action

Remember to: STOP • THINK • GET ADVICE.

Spectacles

We are supporting Nottingham Rotary Club in collecting unwanted spectacles for Vision Aid Overseas. Donated spectacles are graded and distributed to people in developing countries who otherwise wouldn't have access to them. Any condition is accepted, as each pair improves someone's life.

Shoes

Due to cremation regulations on emissions, we must remove shoes from the deceased before sealing the casket. Unless requested otherwise, we'll donate them to local charities Shoe Aid and The Friary. This does not apply to burials.

Clothes & Furniture

Sue Ryder, a national healthcare charity, provides essential care for people with serious illnesses. We also partner with Age Concern Carlton & District to collect quality furniture donations at no cost.

Jewellery

The Alzheimer's Society recycles old and unwanted jewellery, including costume items. We have recycling envelopes available at our Carlton funeral home.

Stand - We walk together

Stand repurposes prosthetics to support amputees in African communities, helping to reduce stigma around disability. We can arrange the donation of any prosthetics.

Hearing Aid Recycling

This organisation repurposes hearing aids to assist deaf children in developing regions, working closely with manufacturers to ensure sustainable practices.

Against Breast Cancer

Against Breast Cancer run a Bra Recycling scheme that takes your unwanted or unloved bras and through a network of bra banks raises vital funds for pioneering breast cancer research. For every tonne of bras collected, Against Breast Cancer receives £700 to fund their research.

Cinnamon Trust - Pets

The Cinnamon Trust is a UK charity providing support for elderly and terminally ill people with pets. The organisation relies on volunteers to walk dogs, transport pets, and foster pets whose owners have difficulty caring for them. It also administers pet sanctuaries.

We are governed by the Funeral Directors Code, a copy of which is available on our website.

The British Institute of Embalmers

The British Institute of Embalmers was founded in 1927 by a group of 15 Funeral Directors who recognised the need for a separate organisation for the professional embalmer. All of our embalmers are members of the BIE and closely follow their code of conduct and ethics. Jackie Lymn Rose was National President in 1988 and was made a fellow of the Institute in 2013. www.bioe.co.uk

Selected Independent Funeral Homes

The A.W. LYMN Centenary Foundation

Ben J. Percival

To mark 100 years of service, A.W. Lymn created a charitable foundation in 2007 to support the communities it serves. The company donates at least £10 for each private funeral, and the foundation is managed by six Trustees, including three independent members. Administered by Ben J. Percival, the great-great-grandson of Arthur William Lymn, the foundation distributes funds to local causes. Local individuals, groups, or organisations can apply for funding by emailing or writing to Ben for an application form.

Many local organisations have benefited from the A.W. Lymn Centenary Foundation, in different ways, including for example building work, new facilities, the provision of a Christmas lunch and holiday trips for under privileged and disabled children.

Lymn Vouchers

Vouchers from a local family owned business.

Lymn Vouchers are offered by A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service Limited and can be used towards the cost of any services provided by the company.

No large capital sum is required, no monthly commitment is necessary and, unlike a pre-paid funeral plan, the Lymn Voucher can be used towards the cost of luxury vehicle hire, flowers or the release of doves for any occasion, further they can be used for funeral related activities irrespective of whether that is for the voucher holders such as memorial work, obituary notices, in memoriam donations, or to partly fund any funeral.

On the death of the voucher holder, the vouchers can be used towards the cost of their funeral. If the date of death is more than six months after the issue date of the voucher and A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service is contracted for the funeral, £12.50 will be allowed towards the cost of that funeral for each £10.00 of Lymn Vouchers presented. Any vouchers not used towards the cost of the funeral will be refunded to the estate at the original purchase price.

Finally, it should be noted that Lymn Vouchers can be refunded at any time during the life of the voucher holder and the original amount paid will be refunded to the voucher holder enabling that money to be spent in anyway the voucher holders sees fit. Please speak with us for more information and the full terms and conditions.
